

"America The Tooniful"
American Legion Stage
Saturday, July 4th, 2009
2:30 p.m.

Be sure to join Joe Wos on a unique, fun-filled journey through the art of visual storytelling and live cartoon illustration in "America The Tooniful".

Watch Joe draw stories as he narrates them in a lively, interactive program celebrating America's 250 years of cartooning and tales. Lucky members of the audience will even have an opportunity to take home their very own cartoon illustration from the program! So don't miss this unforgettable and entertaining experience that children and adults of all ages will be sure to enjoy!

Aside from storytelling and live cartoon illustration, Joe is a resident cartoonist of the Charles M. Schulz Museum in Santa Rosa, California. He has performed from coast to coast at some of the most well-known festivals and museums in the nation. In addition, Joe is the Executive Director of ToonSeum, a museum gallery dedicated to the cartoon arts. Exhibitions at Toonseum include original works of art by renowned cartoonists including Charles M. Schulz, Hanna Barbera, Walt Disney Studios, Morrie Turner and many more.
